WHEREAS, the City Council requested a complete review of the City's Ethics Ordinance by the Council Rules Legislative Review Committee and the Ethics Review Commission; and

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF EL PASO, TEXAS:

Section 1. That Section 2.92.010 (Policy) of the El Paso City Code, is amended to read as follows:

2.92.010 Policy and Purpose

- A. All city officers and employees have a fiduciary duty to the citizens of the city to be ethical in fulfilling the responsibilities of their positions. At the very least, being ethical includes being disposed to comply with all laws that apply to one's position.
- B. Ethical conduct is motivated by sources inside and outside the law. The Texas local government, Election and Penal Codes regulate aspects of the conduct of city officers and employees. However, as ethical conduct is more than complying with state codes, the city strongly encourages all of its officers and employees to maintain the highest personal values and standards. While it is impossible to establish specific and exhaustive standards for all situations, the standards established in this chapter are minimum standards below which no city officer or employee's conduct should fall. This chapter has the following purposes:

CITY CLERK DEPT.
09 APR 22 PM 3:14

1. To establish an ethics review commission;
 2. To maintain and improve standards of public service;
 3. To improve public confidence in the integrity of city government;
 4. To provide a process by which officers and employees may identify and resolve ethical issues;
 5. To avoid conflicts between the personal interest and the public responsibilities of city officers and employees;
 6. To establish minimum standards of conduct to be adhered to by city officers and employees;
 7. To require disclosure of private financial interests by certain individuals;
 8. To require reporting of certain gifts received by certain individuals;
 9. To provide for complaints and resolution of ethical issues and concerns; and
 10. To provide penalties for failure to adhere to the minimum standards set forth in this chapter.
- C. This chapter is cumulative of and supplemental to all applicable provisions of the city charter, other city ordinances, and state and federal laws and regulations. Compliance with this chapter does not excuse or relieve any person from any obligation imposed by the city charter, other city ordinances, or state or federal laws or regulations.
- D. The city attorney's office shall prepare, maintain and make available a chart that summarizes the application of the various obligations imposed by this chapter and the charter on officers and employees.

d. In the event that the board member is a member of the El Paso Housing Finance Corporation, the industrial development authority, or other similar corporation organized pursuant to state law, the city clerk shall prepare and send a notice of the failure of the board member to file a financial disclosure statement to each member of the city council for their review and consideration regarding the possible removal of the board member from office in accordance with the applicable removal provisions contained in any articles of agreement or bylaws of the corporation or statutory provisions.

e. In the event that the board member is a member of any other city board subject to the requirement of this section, that board member shall be deemed removed from office without action or review by the city council. The city clerk shall prepare and send a notice of the removal to the board member and to the city council member who had appointed the board member. The removal shall be effective on the date that the notice is deposited in the United States mail or if not mailed, upon delivery to the board member.

10. The removal provision established in subsection (A)(9)(e) of this section for the failure of a board member to file a financial disclosure statement shall be in addition to and shall be controlling over any other city ordinance or city council resolution that establishes procedures for the removal of board members.

B. Reporting of Gifts.

1. Each officer and designated employee shall keep a written record of all reportable gifts received during his or her term of office or employment.

2. Such record shall be made for each calendar month. The record shall include a description of the reportable gift received; the name of the person and organization giving the reportable gift; the relationship of the donor to the reporter; the value or estimated value of the reportable gift; and the immediate or intended disposition of the reportable gift. 5. Any gift, benefit, hosting, honorarium or other economic gain or economic advantage that is refused and returned to the sender within seventy-two hours of receipt shall not constitute a reportable gift under this section.

6. Any gift which exceeds seventy-five ($75) dollars in value, which is not covered by the special applications under Section 2.92.040 B of this code and which is turned over to the city manager within seventy-two hours of receipt for acceptance as a gift to the city, shall not constitute the acceptance of a gift in violation of section 2.92.050 A of this code, provided that the disposition of such gift is reported on a timely filed reportable gift form.

7. The city manager, on a monthly basis, shall prepare a report which shall be made available to the public of all gifts that have been turned over to his office for acceptance as a gift to the City.

8. For purposes of this section, "honorarium" shall mean a payment, other than reimbursement for meals, travel or lodging expenses, for services provided in connection with addressing an audience or engaging in a seminar.

Section 8. That Section 2.92.080 (Complaints—filing—review) of the El Paso City Code, is amended to read as follows:

2.92.080 Complaints—filing—review.

A. Any person (including a member of the ethics review commission) who believes that there has been a violation of this chapter may file a sworn complaint with the city clerk to allege such violations.

B. A person who knowingly makes a false statement in a complaint, or in proceedings before the ethics review commission, is subject to criminal prosecution for perjury.

C. A complaint filed under this section must be in writing and under oath and must set forth in simple, concise, and direct statements:

1. The name of the complainant;
2. The street or mailing address and the telephone number of the complainant;
3. The name of each person complained about;
4. The position or title of each person complained about;
5. The nature of the alleged violation, including whenever possible, the specific provision of this chapter alleged to have been violated;
6. A statement of the facts constituting the alleged violation and the dates on which or period of time in which the alleged violation occurred; and
7. All documents or other material available to the complainant that are relevant to the allegation; a list of all documents or other material relevant to the allegation and available to the complainant but that are not in the possession of the complainant, including the location of the documents, if known; and a list of all documents or other material relevant to the allegation but unavailable to the complainant, including the location of the documents, if known.

D. The complaint must be accompanied by an affidavit stating that the information contained in the complaint is either true and correct or that the complainant has good reason to believe and does believe that the facts alleged constitute a violation of this chapter. If the complaint is based on information and belief, the complainant shall state the source and basis of the information and belief. Each complainant, other than a member of the ethics review commission, shall swear to the facts by oath before a notary public or other person authorized by law to administer oaths under penalty of perjury.

The complaint must state on its face an allegation that, if true, constitutes a violation of this chapter that is administered and enforced by the commission.

E. A complaint shall be promptly forwarded by the city clerk to the city attorney's office for review to determine whether the matter described is within the purview of the ethics review commission; provided however, that a complaint that is not sworn as required by this section shall not be forwarded by the city clerk to the city attorney's office, but shall be returned to the complainant.

F. Within fourteen days of the filing of the complaint, the city attorney's office shall provide a copy of the complaint, this ordinance, and any rules of the ethics review commission to the respondent and advise the respondent that he may, within seven days of receipt, respond by sworn writing filed with the city clerk, a copy of which shall be provided to the respondent and the city attorney's office.

G. Within twenty days of the filing of the complaint, the city attorney's office shall take one of the following actions:

1. Refer the matter to the ethics review commission if the complaint is filed in conformity with the requirements of this section and the matter is within the purview of the ethics review commission;
2. In the event that deficiencies in the complaint are identified that prevent the city attorney's office from making a meaningful review of and determination regarding the appropriate disposition of the complaint, the city attorney's office may notify the complainant in writing of such deficiencies that could be capable of correction and request such correction within fifteen days of the date of the communication to the complainant. The time for action under this section shall be tolled while the city attorney's office awaits the complainant's response, up to a maximum of fifteen days;
3. Dismiss any complaint that does not relate to a person subject to the jurisdiction of the ethics review commission, or any complaint, that if true as alleged, would not as a matter of law constitute a violation of this chapter; or
4. Refer complaints that cannot be readily assigned to the ethics review commission because of deficiencies, complaints that lack specificity in identifying the alleged violations of this chapter, and complaints that appear to have been frivolously filed to a panel of the commission.

H. If the matter is referred to a panel under subsection G 4 above, at least three eligible members of the panel shall meet as soon as practicable to review the complaint. In the event that at least three eligible members of the panel are unable to schedule and hold a meeting within thirty days, the city attorney's office shall rotate the panels and schedule the meeting with the next panel on the list, continuing until such time as the meeting is scheduled and held. The panel, by majority vote, shall take one of the following actions, which shall be reported to the ethics review commission at the commission's next following meeting or at a meeting scheduled pursuant to section 2.92.090 A of this code, with such report to be reflected in the minutes of the meeting:

1. Review complaints that facially appear to be questionable or deficient for a determination as to whether just cause exists to proceed with a hearing before the ethics review commission. "Just cause" means such cause as is found to exist upon a reasonable inquiry that would induce a reasonably intelligent and prudent person to believe that a person has committed an act or acts constituting an ethical violation under this chapter;

2. Review complaints which do not clearly state alleged violations of this chapter and make a determination as to the specific identification of the alleged violations, and if none exist, dismiss the complaint; or
3. Review complaints for a determination as to whether a complaint was frivolously filed, and if so, dismiss the complaint and refer the matter to the entire commission, who may issue an appropriate sanction to the complainant of the type provided for in Section 2.92.090 I 1, 2 or 3 of this code.
 - a. For purposes of this subsection, a "frivolous complaint" is a sworn complaint that is groundless and brought in bad faith or groundless and brought for the purpose of harassment.
 - b. In deciding if a complaint is frivolous, the members will determine if the complaint is groundless, brought in bad faith, or brought for the purpose of harassment, and may consider:
 - (1) the nature and type of any publicity surrounding the filing of the sworn complaint, and the degree of participation by the complainant in publicizing the fact that a sworn complaint was filed with the city;
 - (2) the existence and nature of any relationship between the respondent and the complainant before the complaint was filed;
 - (3) any evidence that the complainant knew or reasonably should have known that the allegations in the complaint were groundless; and
 - (4) any evidence of the complainant's motives in filing the complaint.

Section 9. That Section 2.92.090 (Complaints—hearing—disposition) of the El Paso City Code, be added to read as follows:

Section 2.92.090 Complaints—hearing—disposition.

A. If the matter is referred to the ethics review commission as a whole, the commission will schedule a review of the matter as soon as practicable and shall without delay, provide copies of the complaint and all relevant documentation to the members of the commission, the complainant and the respondent. If the matter was referred to the commission by a panel, the relevant documentation shall include any findings and determinations of the panel, to include the provisions of this chapter, if any, that were identified by the panel as having been allegedly violated.

B. For all hearings of either a panel or the entire commission, the person submitting the complaint and any persons named in the complaint will be sent written notice of the date, time and place of the meeting by the city attorney's office so that these persons may have the opportunity to attend the meeting at which the review will take place.

C. In the event that either the complainant or the respondent, or their attorneys if any, are unavailable to attend any scheduled hearing of the ethics review commission, they may request a continuance of the hearing by submitting a written request for a continuance to the city attorney. The complainant and the respondent (including their attorneys if any) shall each be entitled to receive one automatic continuance as a matter of right. Thereafter, any written requests for additional continuances shall be forwarded to the chair of the commission, who may either make a determination and decision regarding the request, or submit the request to the commission for the commission's determination and decision at a scheduled meeting of the commission. The decision to grant a continuance shall be made upon good cause shown and in the interest of promoting fairness to all parties, based on the available information.

D. The complainant or respondent or their attorneys, or any witnesses requested to appear at a hearing, who have questions regarding the conduct of any proceeding before the ethics review commission or who need to raise any preliminary issue concerning the conduct of a scheduled hearing, may bring such matters to the attention of the city attorney. The city attorney or his designee shall resolve such matters to the extent possible, and if necessary, consult the chair of the commission to determine the appropriate resolution, or bring the matter forward to the commission at a scheduled meeting for a resolution.

E. Only eligible members of the ethics review commission or a panel thereof will hear the matters presented before them. A member shall not be eligible to hear the issues under this section or as a member of a panel under section 2.92.080 of this code, and shall recuse himself in the following situations:

1. Where, because of familial relationship, employment, investments, or otherwise, his impartiality might reasonably be questioned;
2. When the member initiated the complaint;
3. When the complaint involves the member of the city council who nominated him for a seat on the ethics review commission;
4. When the complaint involves a member of another city board or commission on which the ethics review commission member also sits;
5. When the member is not present during one hearing of an investigation or disposition of a complaint, the member shall recuse himself from further hearings and matters regarding the complaint and shall cease to be eligible to participate in the disposition of the complaint.

In the case of a recusal, the ethics review commission member shall abstain from voting on the matter and refrain from discussion of the matter at any time with the other members of the ethics review commission.

F. General rules for the conduct of a hearing.

1. The ethics review commission may at the start of a hearing establish time limits and other rules relating to the participation of any person in the hearing, subject to the provisions set forth herein. Such time limits and rules shall be created for the purpose of establishing an orderly and fair hearing process for all participants, and shall include a determination of the parameters of opening and closing statements, the roles of the complainant and the respondent, limitations regarding testimony from non-relevant or cumulative witnesses, and the presentation and direct questioning of witnesses by the respondent, complainant or any attorneys who may be in attendance and representing the complainant and/or respondent.

2. The person charged in the complaint (respondent) has the right to attend the hearing, the right to make a statement, the right to present witnesses pursuant to the parameters set by the commission for the hearing, and the right to be accompanied by legal counsel or another advisor. The legal counsel or other advisor to the respondent may advise the respondent during the course of the hearing, but may not speak on behalf of the respondent, except to represent the respondent while testifying. The respondent, or his legal counsel or other advisor, may not personally question or cross-examine witnesses, except with the permission of the commission.
3. The complainant has the right to attend the hearing, the right to make a statement and offer witnesses, and the right to be accompanied by legal counsel or another advisor. The legal counsel or other advisor to the complainant may advise the complainant during the course of the hearing, but may not speak on behalf of the complainant, except to represent the complainant while testifying. The complainant, or his legal counsel or other advisor, may not personally question or cross-examine witnesses, except with the permission of the commission.
4. As provided by the city charter, the ethics review commission shall have the authority to request witness testimony and production. The chair or his designee on behalf of the commission, shall have the authority to request any and all necessary assistance from the City Council for the purposes of compelling testimony, including the subpoenaing of witnesses in accordance with procedures authorized in the city charter and city ordinances, to include authority to bring such matters forward to the City Council through the placement of agenda items, as drafted in the proper form by the city attorney or his designee.
5. The city attorney and his designees shall disclose to the ethics review commission and provide to the person charged in the complaint evidence actually known to the attorneys tending to negate guilt or mitigate the seriousness of the offense (exculpatory evidence).
6. All witnesses must be sworn, and the members of the ethics review commission or their designees shall conduct questioning of witnesses, or allow questioning pursuant to the rules created under subsection F 1 above.
7. The ethics review commission is not bound by the rules of evidence, but shall rely on evidence of which a reasonably prudent person commonly relies in the conduct of the person's affairs. The commission shall hear evidence relevant to the allegations and shall not consider hearsay unless it finds the nature of the information if reliable and useful.
8. A determination that a violation of this chapter has occurred can be made only upon an affirmative vote of a majority of the ethics review commission members present and voting; otherwise the complaint must be dismissed. A finding that a violation occurred must be supported by clear and convincing evidence. "Clear and convincing evidence" means that measure or degree of proof that produces in a person's mind a firm belief or conviction as to the truth of the allegations sought to be established.

G. After hearing the complaint, the ethics review commission will issue a decision or recommendation based on the information available to the commission. The ethics review commission must:

1. Dismiss the complaint or find that no violation of the ordinance occurred, with the grounds for such dismissal or finding set forth in the report;
2. Find that a violation of this chapter occurred and either find that a sanction is not appropriate, or take action in accordance with subsections I or J below and identify the particular provision or provisions determined to have been violated;
- or
3. Recommend to the city council that the city council take up the matter in lieu of a recommendation for a specific action from the ethics review commission and identify the reasons for such recommendation in the report. In such case, the city council may exercise any and all of the duties and responsibilities of the commission.

H. If after hearing the issues, the ethics review commission dismisses the complaint or finds that no violation of the ordinance occurred, the commission shall create a written report of their findings or dismissal, and such report shall be filed with the minutes of the meeting in the office of the city clerk, and a copy of the report shall be mailed to those persons who were provided notice of the hearing and be made available on the city's website for a period of one year.

I. If after hearing the issues, the ethics review commission determines that a violation of this chapter has occurred, commission may issue any of the sanctions in subsections 1, 2 or 3 below, or recommend the issuance the sanction of removal from office.

1. Letter of Notification. A letter of notification may be issued when the ethics review commission finds that a violation of this chapter was clearly unintentional or when the action or conduct found to have been a violation of this chapter was performed by the official in reliance on a written opinion of the city attorney. A letter of notification may advise the person to whom the letter is directed of any steps to be taken to avoid future violations.
2. Letter of Admonition. A letter of admonition may be issued when the ethics review commission finds that the violation of this chapter was minor and/or may have been unintentional, but where the circumstances call for a more substantial response than a letter of notification.
3. Letter of Reprimand. A reprimand may be issued when the ethics review commission finds that a violation of this chapter was committed intentionally or through disregard of this chapter.
4. Removal from Office. Removal from office may be recommended to the city council for action when the ethics review commission finds that a serious or repeated violation of this chapter was committed by an officer intentionally or through culpable disregard of this chapter.

If the ethics review commission votes to impose a sanction of a letter of notification, a letter of admonition, or a letter of reprimand, the commission shall prepare a written report of their findings, which shall be filed with the minutes of the meeting in the office of the city clerk and be made available on the city's website for a period of one year. The city attorney shall draft the letter of sanction per the direction of the commission and mail a copy of the letter to the person receiving the sanction, certified, return receipt requested.

J. If the ethics review commission recommends the imposition of the sanction of removal from office, it shall prepare a written report containing its recommendation. The report will be sent to the city clerk who shall, within fourteen days of receipt, place the matter on the city council agenda for discussion and action by the city council regarding the recommendation of the ethics review commission. The final authority to carry out a recommendation for removal from office shall be with the city council and shall take place in conformity with any other law or requirements for such removal. The city clerk shall, within fourteen days of the date of any city council action taken on a complaint, forward a copy of such action to the chair of the ethics review commission.

Section 10. That Section 2.92.150 (Penalty) of the El Paso City Code, is amended to read as follows:

2.92.150 Penalty.

A. The failure of any officer or employee to comply with this chapter or the violation of one or more of the standards of conduct set forth in this article, which apply to him or her, shall constitute grounds for expulsion, reprimand, removal from office or discharge. In the case of an employee of the city, disciplinary action and appeals therefrom shall be in conformance with procedures established by the city charter and personnel rules and regulations. In the case of an officer, the matter shall be decided by the ethics review commission in accordance with the provisions in Section 2.92.080 or by a vote of the city council in accordance with the charter or in accordance with applicable state law. The decision of these bodies shall be final.

2. For a member of the ethics review commission, to knowingly entertain an ex parte communication prohibited by subsection C 1 above, or to communicate about any issue of fact or law relating to the complaint directly or indirectly with any person other than a member of the ethics review commission or the city attorney's office.

D. Any offense for a violation of a criminal provision of this chapter shall be separate from and in addition to any criminal offense under the Texas Election Code.

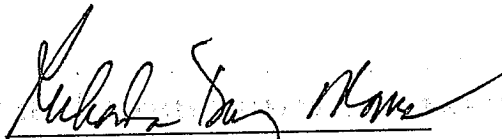

Section 11. That, except as herein amended, Chapter 2.92 (Ethics), shall remain in full force and effect.
